

North Dakota

4-H Century Family

The North Dakota 4-H Century Family program recognizes 4-H families with a long, sustained involvement in the 4-H program. North Dakota 4-H families with a combined 100 or more years of membership and/or volunteer service in 4-H will be recognized.

The program is coordinated by North Dakota 4-H Foundation Inc. and the North Dakota 4-H Youth Development Program.

Recognition will be at the North Dakota 4-H Foundation Awards and Donor Recognition luncheon in Fargo.

4-H years that apply:

- You can consider only direct-line family members. Aunts and uncles, cousins, etc., may not be considered. Stepparents, stepchildren or adopted children may be included.
- Supporting documentation is not necessary.
- Paid staff years (Extension or other) do not apply.
- In some instances, local Extension Homemakers or Farm Bureau members committed significant time and energy to establishing and leading local 4-H clubs. Years of service to 4-H in those capacities are applicable.
- Volunteer years devoted to 4-H club work on the county, regional or state levels are applicable.
- 4-H members or leadership in North Dakota or other states can be included.
- Years as an enrolled Clover Kid or Clover Bud may be counted.

Applications must be submitted by Aug. 31.
