

Title

Decoding Diabetes: Your Roadmap to Updated Standards

Course Description:

Pharmacists are essential in the care of patients with diabetes regardless of the pharmacist practice setting. Patients are navigating through several life changes when diagnosed with diabetes and pharmacists are very accessible not only to help educate and train patients, but to serve as a resource when patients have questions. Diabetes standards continue to be updated on a yearly basis, and it is important that pharmacists are aware of the changes in care.
