Subject: Our Good Things - March 2024 Update

Hello colleagues,

For the past two years we have recognized 197 individuals through our Student Affairs and Institutional Equity Good Things project. It's been a joy for me to hear about all the ways in which you appreciate your colleagues!

I'd like to challenge you now to move from individual recognition to group recognition. Here's my challenge:

I'd like your department to consider recognizing another department or team of people that has been helpful to you this academic year. Did another office collaborate with yours? Was there a project or task that was easier to handle because of their assistance? Is there is a 'go-to' office that you appreciate?

Please take a minute and complete the form recognizing a department or team of people. I will make sure they know of their good things!

We will take a short break from the Good Things email for the summer but feel free to complete the form whenever you want.
