Money is one of the biggest stressors for many college students. How are you doing? Is the budget you planned still working for you? Is your balance at NDSU taken care of?

If you've experienced unexpected expenses or big changes in life that are affecting your finances, reach out to One Stop. NDSU may have resources that can help!

Remember, you can apply for scholarships every year on Academic Works. If you didn't file a FAFSA application for this year, it's not too late. We recommend that everyone completes it, as many people think they won't qualify for aid and are surprised that they actually do.

We collectively acknowledge that we gather at NDSU, a land grant institution, on the traditional lands of the Oceti Sakowin (Dakota, Lakota, Nakoda) and Anishinaabe Peoples in addition to many diverse Indigenous Peoples still connected to these lands. We honor with gratitude Mother Earth and the Indigenous Peoples who have walked with her throughout generations. We will continue to learn how to live in unity with Mother Earth and build strong, mutually beneficial, trusting relationships with Indigenous Peoples of our region.
