

Applying for Admission to the School of Education

Admission and Retention

- All students preparing to become teacher candidates must first be formally admitted to the School of Education.
- Typical progression of events:

Take EDUC 321 Introduction to Teaching	Submit Application	Begin taking 400-Level Professional Education courses if admitted
Fall Semester	Deadline: Feb. 15	In the following Fall Semester
Spring Semester	Deadline: Sept. 15	In the following Spring Semester

- Prior to enrolling in 400-level professional education courses, students must receive official notice of admission from the School of Education, and this must occur at least one semester prior to the semester in which student teaching is planned.
- After admission, teacher candidates are required to maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or above to remain admitted until graduation. Otherwise, candidates are subject to suspension or termination from the School of Education.

Applications received after the deadlines will not be reviewed until the following semester.
