1. Phi Kappa Phi Faculty Lectureship Award. The committee reviewed the evaluation criteria and discussed the five nominations received for the award. Based on feedback and rankings from committee members and the Phi Kappa Phi representative (Ross Collins), we selected the following three faculty as finalists:

- Joel Caton, Animal Sciences
- Brad Strand, HNES
- Michael Strand, Visual Arts

We will meet in early October to hear finalists give a brief (five to 15 minute) research talk and select an awardee.
