1. We are planning future Tri-College women faculty networking events with women from engineering firms, scientific labs, data centers, etc. Can you provide suggestions of local women who would be beneficial to network with? Are there any organizations that we should contact to invite their women leaders to attend our next networking event?
 - I'll have to think about this but I'm sure I can come up w/ some women.
 - Not sure right now...Maybe Karrie Winterstien from Theatre B?
2. What do you think were the most helpful or valuable aspects of the event you attended today?
 - Meeting folks from different institutions.
 - Knowing about different areas people are involved and also seeing common interests.
 - Meeting young, proactive people.

3. How could this event be improved to be more beneficial to you?
 - It worked really well – the room was just right.
 - Maybe inviting a speaker.
 - Late afternoon ☺ Early evening – wine!
