

Dr. Virginia Valian, Hunter College
Accountability Principles and Actions for Chairs/Heads
Heads/Chairs Meeting
September 25, 2009

Attendance

23 Chairs/Heads and Faculty attended and 12 completed the evaluation

Suggestions for Improvement/Action Items

- The evaluations seem to suggest that having direct interactions (i.e., question and answer period) with the speaker is most helpful and that practical suggestions that can be implemented at NDSU are important to the Heads/Chairs

Qualitative Results from the Evaluation Form

1. What questions do you still have after attending this workshop? Please list any areas that you would like to receive additional information about or that need further clarification.
 - No responses to this question
2. What do you think were the most helpful or valuable aspects of the workshop you attended today?
 - The idea of striving to promote loyalty.
 - Interactive with examples and consequences explained.
 - Finally a very practical discussion!
 - I like that it was largely unstructured and the discussion followed questions from attendees that allows for more informative answers to our problems.
3. How could this workshop be improved to be more beneficial to you? What recommendations do you have for future workshops?
 - More time.
4. Please provide any additional comments you have about today's workshop and/or the FORWARD program in general below or on the back of this page.
 - Most of what was presented was knowledge I already had and practiced.
