

Rolinda Mix – AD 1985 Nursing

RoLinda Marie Mix, 68, Fargo, ND, passed away on May 1, 2023 at Sanford Hospice House surrounded by family after a hard journey with pancreatic cancer.

RoLinda Mix was born on April 11, 1955 to Ronald and Ella (Noe) Mix at St. Luke's Hospital in Fargo. She grew up in Fargo and graduated from Fargo South High School in 1973. She went on to graduate from the North Dakota State School of Science with a LPN degree in 1976, and from North Dakota State University with a RN degree in 1985. Ro was a member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church. She belonged to the Bethlehem quilters group, was an avid reader, and loved to socialize with friends and family. Ro especially enjoyed the lunches with the Dakota Hospital Golden Oldies. She loved the beaches in Florida and Hawaii; you could catch her in flip-flops year-round. Marjorie (Andrew) and Ronald, Ro's niece and nephew, filled her heart and meant the world to her. She took great pleasure in attending all of their activities while they grew up. Ro had two dogs, Bella and Lacey. They gave her great joy, companionship and she loved them dearly.

RoLinda is survived by her sisters Carolyn Mix, Charlene (Mark) Laney, and Marlene Mix; niece Marjorie (Andrew) Nerby; nephew Ronald Laney; uncle Almon Mix; as well as many special family members and friends.

RoLinda was preceded in death by her parents Ronald and Ella (Noe) Mix.
