

Kirk Nystrom – AD 1991 Respiratory Therapy

Kirk Brian Nystrom, 62, of Fargo, North Dakota entered into eternal life on August 10, 2024. He was with his brother on a lake, fishing, doing what he loved.

Kirk was born on October 8th, 1961, in Minneapolis, MN. The first child of Milo and Valeria Nystrom. He went to school in his hometown of Kenmare, North Dakota, where he did some wrestling and track, but his first love was playing High School football with his best friends. Afterwards he attended schools at NDSU-Bottineau, UND, and NDSU. During this time he spent some time in the Navy Reserves. He lived in the Twin Cities and spent 15 years working for Anderson Windows and eventually moved back to Fargo North Dakota to be nearer his family, and to help take care of his mom. Kirk moved on to working in the area of security, which was his favorite occupation.

Kirk loved the outdoors and hunting and fishing. His favorite times in life were spending time outdoors with his dad. He also was an avid collector of watches, knives, and things needed for hunting. In his personal life, he had a special love for his nieces and nephews and loved to interact with them like a big teddy bear. Kirk was a big Vikings fan and enjoyed discussing all things about them.

Kirk's surviving family includes his sister Shari (Kyle) Martin, and his brother Mark (Jean) Nystrom, both of Fargo, ND; And his five nieces and nephews. Paul, Cassandra, Levi, Chris, and Audrey, all of whom cherish him. He was preceded in death by his father and mother, Milo and Valeria Nystrom.

Visitation will be Friday August 23rd, at 9am followed by a funeral service at 10am at Boulger Funeral Home, Fargo ND. Burial will be at Holy Cross North Cemetery following the service.
