Scheels Health Athletic Complex (SHAC)

NDSU Women's Basketball Clinical Site

The SHAC (Scheels Health Athletic Complex) is the main athletic training room on campus. It houses the athletic department offices, assistant athletic trainers, graduate assistant athletic trainers, equipment room, sports medicine, and strength and conditioning spaces. The athletic training room cares for athletes in women's basketball, soccer, track and field, and wrestling. The athletic training room has taping, treatment, and rehabilitation areas for athletes. It also contains two physician rooms used by the team physicians, and wet room which includes hot and cold whirlpools, and an indoor water treadmill.
