

Silent Discussion

1. Prepare for the discussion by completing the reading/viewing the video/etc.
2. Go to the Discussion Board and read through the prompts.
3. Choose your first topic to respond to. Compose a thoughtful detailed response expressing your conclusions with the reasons why (evidence).
4. Choose two other topics of interest. Read the responses from your classmates before you answer. Build on the existing conversation, offering additional ideas and evidence for a response you agree with or respectfully offering an additional point of view.
