  - A. Policy 336- Examinations and Grading Policy
    - i. Motion to open discussion by J. Anderson, seconded by Hovde
    - ii. J. Anderson: This policy impacts every student, and I don’t have enough student feedback. I would like to see this tabled until the fall.
    - iii. Hovde: The reaction I got from students was discouraging. Students might use this opportunity to do things other than study.
    - iv. Samp: I was excited about this initially, but I think it is important to have the extra days without tests and quizzes for more review time.
    - v. J. Anderson: Do we know if classes that meet only once a week will have the opportunity to reschedule to fit this policy passes?
      1. Vice-President Arndt: Typically, courses need to give a notice if they will be holding a special class period.

NDSU STUDENT GOVERNMENT

- vi. Motion by J. Anderson to table Policy 336, seconded by Hovde
  - 1. Voice vote, passes
  - 2. Policy 336 tabled until the fall
- XVII. Student Concerns
  - A. Hovde: Do we know if the other senate bodies have voted on Policy 336, and if not, do we know when this will happen?
    - i. Vice-President Arndt: I believe faculty senate tabled it until the fall, and staff senate put it through consent agenda.
- XVIII. Reports off the Floor
  - A. E. Anderson nominates Hovde for senator of the week. Congrats!
- XIX. Announcements
- XX. Adjourn until the fall
