Rollie Johnson
Becoming A Better U

Who is Rollie?

Rollie Johnson has served First Lutheran Church of Fargo since 1995 and is currently the Director of Mission and Outreach. His duties include overseeing and leading Celebration Worship, preaching and men's ministry. His wife, Ady, is an Associate Professor at Concordia where she teaches Spanish. They have been richly blessed with three wonderful children: Karina, Marissa and Shane. Rollie has many interests and passions including bow hunting, bow building, sewing, flintknapping, camping and canoeing. Rollie is an accomplished writer and has had dozens of articles published in national outdoor and hunting magazines. Rollie and his family make their home in Moorhead, MN.

Discover U Presents!

Becoming a Better U

Becoming a better NDSU community means that, as individuals, we must first become the best possible versions of ourselves. Join us on November 13th, 2013 from 8:00am-1:00pm for a half-day professional development session hosted by NDSU Staff Senate. Our presenter, Rollie Johnson, is a local expert in overcoming adversity and understands that a positive attitude is self-empowering.

This is an interactive workshop intended to provoke deeper thought on what it takes to become a better person. Please come prepared to participate.

What is "Discover U"?

Discover U is a program hosted by NDSU Staff Senate to allow staff the opportunity to participate in professional development at a reasonable cost. We aim to provide diverse experiences and networking opportunities.

$20.00 per attendee
